Alternative Recycling Locations

These organizations accept household goods such as books, clothes, furniture, toys, cookware, and sporting goods for resale to the public. Most of them are also non-profit organizations that support a particular charity. Look in your phone book for other stores in your area. Keep in mind the items accepted by these stores must be in resalable condition. Most organizations do not have the ability or staff to make repairs to broken items. Please do not burden them with disposal costs from junk items.
